

Allotment Of Government Accommodation under Rule of 15 of AAR-2002

Supreme Court Of Pakistan, Judgment CPLA No, 1090/2009

1. The Accommodation allotment to retired / deceased Federal Government Servant will only be allotted to his serving children/spouse subject to entitlement and provided that the beneficiary was in government service during the permissible retention period of six month and one year respectively.
2. The Serving spouse/children of the retired/deceased FGS shall not be allotted accommodation of his/her category under Rule 15 of AAR-2002 and such accommodation shall be got vacated after expiry of grace period of six month and one year as the case may be.

They shall apply for accommodation of their entitlement. They shall be registered in GWL under Rule 6 of AAR-2002 and shall be allotted first available accommodation of their entitlement